

ACSA Webinar presenter David Rousell

BIOGRAPHY

David Rousell is a Senior Lecturer at the Education school of RMIT, Melbourne. Prior to this he was Research Fellow in the Education and Social Research Institute at Manchester Metropolitan University, where he co-directs the Biosocial Laboratory for Research on Learning and Behaviour (www.biosocialresearchlab.com). Previously David worked as Research Fellow in the Arts and Sustainability at Southern Cross University (2014-2017), where he co-led the Climate Change and Me project with Professor Amy Cutter-Mackenzie and over 100 young people as co-researchers.