

ACSA Webinar presenter Carla Gagliano

BIOGRAPHY

A K-6 educator, Carla Gagliano is passionate about teaching for understanding and helping learners to become critical and creative thinkers. With a keen interest for learning, pedagogy and best practices to enable authentic experiences for all, being a lifelong learner and engaging in a range of professional experiences is central to Carla's growth as an educator. Through her classroom teaching and role as Head of Learning and Teaching ELC-Year 6 at Masada College, she has the opportunity to work alongside colleagues to continue developing a culture where individual and collective thinking is valued and promoted. The wonders and discoveries of young minds and reflecting on those 'ah-ha' moments are what Carla loves most about being part of education.
