

ACSA Webinar presenter Deborah Netolicky

BIOGRAPHY

Dr Deborah Netolicky has spent more than 20 years as a teacher and school leader in Perth, Melbourne, and London. Currently, she holds the roles of Head of Teaching and Learning (K-12) at St Mark's Anglican Community School, and Honorary Research Associate at Murdoch University. Her school leadership roles have encompassed curriculum, pedagogy, research use, professional learning, staff development, coaching, the school library and the use of technologies for teaching and learning. She is trained in Cognitive Coaching, GROWTH Coaching, and Adaptive Schools and is author of the book 'Transformational professional learning: Making a difference in schools' and co-Editor of 'Flip the System Australia: What matters in education'.