

ACSA Webinar presenter Jenny Mackay

BIOGRAPHY

Jenny Mackay is the Deputy Principal at Dandenong North Primary School. In her time at Dandenong North, Jenny has led incredible student improvements through an unwavering focus on what works in literacy – driven by academic research, and by what works in the Dandenong North setting. Her emphasis on the development of staff, and the focus on meeting individual student needs, has given way to many years of student growth and achievement. Jenny generously shares her knowledge and experience with educators within the Dandenong community, and those further afield.
