

ACSA Webinar presenter Lisa Scobie

BIOGRAPHY

Lisa is a part of an innovative team at Kurri Kurri High School that has worked towards the transformation of pedagogical practice. She has redesigned curriculum, learning spaces and class structures to reflect the purpose of education in the 21st century. This transformation had a positive impact on students' learning experiences, and Lisa now provides professional learning to schools around New South Wales to support innovation.