

ACSA Webinar presenter Liz Benson

BIOGRAPHY

Liz is currently Deputy Principal Junior Secondary at Coombabah State High School on the Gold Coast. Liz has been a middle leader for 15 years and her passion is working with middle leaders and principals to create collaborative cultures and structures for school improvement.

In 2018 Liz established the ACELQ Pivotal People Middle Leaders network on the Gold Coast. Pivotal People is a professional collegial network for educators in middle leadership that aims to create engaging and intellectually stimulating conversations with educators about issues important to middle leaders. Liz is also an active member of the Australian Curriculum Studies Association.

Liz has also consulted to the Victorian Association of Secondary School Principals, facilitating workshops and conference presentations on creating professional learning communities and practitioner action research.
