

ACSA Webinar presenter Steve Harrison

BIOGRAPHY

Steve Harrison is a Project Officer with the Australian Education Union. With over 20 years' experience in facilitating cutting-edge vocational education programs in schools, Steve has implemented school cultural change to provide authentic workplace learning settings to enhance VET outcomes. In 2016 Steve was awarded a Churchill Fellowship to study school-to-work pathways in Aquaculture. In 2018 Steve was awarded a Commonwealth Bank Teaching Award and Schools Plus Australian Teaching Fellowship. On behalf of the Winston Churchill Trust and its inaugural Policy Impact Program, Steve has recently authored a policy paper on VET in Schools reform.